SHARON CALDERINI

WEALTH EXPERT

Sharon has been providing expert financial advice for 17 years, joining the UK's largest Wealth Management firm - St James's Place, in 2011 and now helping clients in the UK and the UAE. She holds Fellow Chartered status with the CISI as a financial adviser, a title held by only 3% of Chartered Institute members.

Sharon is also a Co-Founder of The Wheel of Wealth, through which she provides expert financial education sessions internationally via corporate staff benefit programmes for both groups and private individuals. She is also regularly invited to hold seminars advising individuals and families on how best to structure their assets with a specific focus on how to remain tax efficient across different jurisdictions.

Sharon has been instrumental in developing St James's Place's mission to help professionals and their families by nurturing and training financial advisers via the Pinnacle Academy in both the UK and UAE.

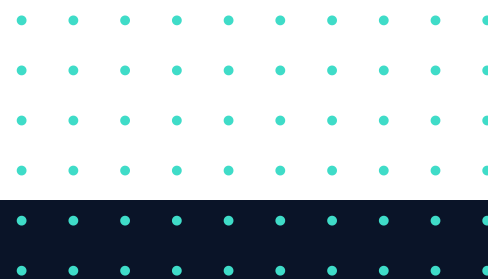

"Financial planning was always my passion after watching close family members work twice as hard as they should have needed to because of a lack of expert advice. Now, I am in the fortunate position to help people reach their full potential and genuinely change lives through financial planning."

Areas of expertise: Financial Planning, tax efficient investing, inheritance tax solutions, trusts and estate planning, school/university fees planning, pensions & retirement planning, asset protection.
