

YUNGO'S VALUES

We firmly believe in providing 5-star training to all our employees, equipping them with the skills needed to thrive in the legal arena.

To achieve this, Yungo empowers its employees, among other things, by:

- implementing a flexible work-from-home scheme;
- encouraging attendance at events and conferences to expand professional networks and knowledge on a weekly basis;
- allowing input on daily decisions and company operations, irrespective of experience or education level.

Together, we're creating a more inclusive and empowered legal community.

TRAINING AT YUNGO LAW

Our one-month vacation scheme serves as the exclusive pathway for students to secure a training contract. The scheme will have flexible dates tailored to accommodate both students' commitments and our firm's needs. This scheme offers a unique opportunity for successful candidates to transition into a full-time training contract.

Annibale D'Addario

Trainee Solicitor

“At Yungo, trainees aren't restricted to mundane tasks; here, my opinion matters.

The firm prioritise my personal development, emphasizing that I am not just an employee, but an integral part of collective success.”

As a boutique law firm, training at Yungo provides a distinct advantage, allowing students to witness every transactions they work on from start to finish, explore diverse practice areas daily, and work closely with associates and partners, fostering a rich learning environment focused on the professional and personal development of every single trainee.

HIRING PROCESS

At Yungo, we offer a stress-free hiring process, understanding the busy lives of students juggling school and personal commitments. We ensure a supportive environment, valuing flexibility and accommodating individual needs to foster success.

Yungo's legal team warmly welcomes students to reach out for a quick chat to discuss the hiring process, life at Yungo, and the broader landscape of a career in law.

We're here to offer guidance and support you as you navigate your professional journey.
